

CT 3112 - PROFESSIONAL SKILLS – TOPIC 1: COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Effective Presentation skills – Preparation and planning. Questions to consider: where, when, what and how

Dr Natalia Resende

University ofGalway .i e

Where will you deliver your presentation?

- Small room or lecture/conference hall
- Familiar setting or new
- Formal or less formal

University

Where will you deliver your presentation?

Additional considerations:

- Layout
- Seating arrangements
- Amenities
- Air/heat/lights
- Facilities & equipment
- Audio/visual equipment

- - Universite
 - ofGalway

When

If you have a choice of when to give your presentation - consider the following points

- Morning
- Afternoon
- Evening/Weekend

Always find out how long you have to present

University of Galway

What do you want/need to present?

- Knowledge analysis
- It is the subject/main content of your presentation
- Comes from the objective

What do you want/need to present?

Will your presentation be...

- An overview
- A basic introduction
- The development of an existing idea
- or a presentation of something new

What do you want/need to present?

When preparing your material also consider:

- Must knows
- Should knows
- Nice to knows

University of Galmay

How

- Structure
- Technology
- Visual aids PowerPoint, overhead projector slides, flipchart or
 - whiteboard
- Audio aids Microphone

How

Equipment available

Delivery Technique

- Voice
- Movement podium or space to move
- Appearance

presentationzen

Simple Ideas on Presentation Design and Delivery

3

Garr Reynolds FOREWORD BY GUY KAWASAKI

New Riders

THAT MATTER™

Brainstorm

"The best way to have a good idea is to have a lot of ideas." Linus Paulling

Grouping and identifying the core

Storyboarding off the computer

Sketch your visuals

Storyboarding on the computer

